

Hydra-Tag

Assured Flow Hydra-Tag is a custom tagging system for fire hydrants. This durable identification system is made from rust and corrosion resistant brass. Steel stamps available for customizing your own identification number or lettering system. Attaches securely to bonnet bolts on hydrant for a virtually tamper proof installation. Identification systems are important for emergency locations, maintenance and repairs, security, mapping and performance evaluations. Assured Flow Sales economical Hydra-Tag identification system is a simple, quick and tamper proof way to identify Fire Hydrants.

Virtually Indestructible Brass Identification Tags

Also can be used on:

Gate Valves - Check Valves - Backflow Preventers

